

THE MYRTLE
TRADING CO.
AUSTRALIA'S FINEST

PRODUCT INFORMATION

Lemon Myrtle (Backhousia citriodora)

Lemon Myrtle Hydrosol

Lemon Myrtle is native to the traditional Bundjalung lands of Northern Rivers NSW, where for thousands of years, the first nations people have revered its powerful healing properties. Our Lemon Myrtle is organically grown on the same rich volcanic soil, before being locally harvested and steam distilled on site. Lemon Myrtle hydrosol has a delightful and subtle citrus flavour and fragrance.

TYPICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Microbiology

Total Plate Count	< 10 ⁷ (typical < 10 ⁶)
Yeast	< 10 ⁴ (typical < 10 ³)
Mould	< 10 ⁵ (typical < 10 ³)
E. coli	< 10 ² (typical < 10 ¹)
Coliforms	< 10 ⁴ (typical < 10 ¹)
Salmonella	Absent/25g

OTHER CHARACTERISTICS

Aroma/taste	Subtle citrus
Colour	Mobile liquid, colourless to pale yellow
Certification	Organic, HACCP, Kosher
Allergens	Free from gluten, cereals, crustaceans, eggs, fish, nuts, soy, milk, celery, mustard, lupine, molluscs, sulfites, sesame
Shelf Life	2 years in original sealed packaging <30°C (out of direct light)
Packaging	Aluminium or HDPE food grade containers
Provenance	Australia, Northern Rivers, NSW - Bundjalung Nation
GMO	GMO free

Features

- Indigenous to Bundjalung lands, Northern Rivers NSW, Australia – the heartland!
- Farmed exclusively in the heartland both organically and regeneratively
- Lemon myrtle hydrosol is the aromatic water fraction produced in the Oil distillation process
- Hydrosol is a less potent version of our essential oil product

Product Applications

- Household – cleaning products, air fresheners, sanitisers
- Personal care – toners, soaps, facial mists, lotions, perfumes
- Pet care – soaps, sprays

Related Products

- Botanicals: Anise Myrtle, Strawberry Gum, Cinnamon Myrtle, Davidson Plum
- Products: Dried leaf, powder, essential oil